

Traveling to a foreign country, meeting new people and learning about different cultures will open up a whole new world to you. Eastern Washington University (EWU) can help you make the most of your experience.

As an educational partner with People to People Ambassador Programs, Eastern Washington University is pleased to offer post-baccalaureate, graduate credit for People to People Teacher Leaders at a discounted undergraduate price. Eastern Washington University's Eisenhower Center has developed a series of courses designed to complement and enhance the travel experience.

The 496/499 level field studies courses at Eastern Washington University are offered as post-baccalaureate, graduate resident credit courses. Leaders can register at any time; however, it is best to register ten (10) or more days before departure.

Courses offered:

- Cross-Cultural Curriculum Development: Group Leader - EDUC 496C (2 Credits)
Cross-Cultural Curriculum Development - EDUC 499C (5 Credits)
- Cultural Diversity for the Educator -SOST 499E (5 Credits)
- Cultural Diversity for the Professional - SOST 499P (5 Credits)
- World of Arts - ART 499A (5 Credits)
- Educational Group Travel Methods for the Teacher - SOST 499T (3 Credits)
- Educational Group Travel Methods for the Teacher: Student Leader Facilitator -
SOST 499C (3-5 Credits)

For information on tuition cost and how to register, please contact EWU's Eisenhower Center directly at:

Eastern Washington University
Eisenhower Center
300 Senior Hall
Cheney, WA 99004
Phone: 800-541-2125
E-mail: Eisenhower.Center@mail.ewu.edu
Website: www.ewu.edu/ec